Free Union Erin's Only Condition, Says Sinn Fein's Organ

Dublin Sept. 10.—A statement which, in view of the status of the peace negotiations, may be significant appears in the Irish Bulletin, official organ of the Dail Eireann.

"Ireland makes but one condition," says the paper—"that it be a free union. The long antagonism between Ireland and England arose solely from England's attempts to make the subjection of Ireland the first condition of the alliance which should naturally exist between them. Whatever qualifications of 'complete political and economic separation' are made necessary by physical and historical facts will be acceptable to Ireland, provided they are consonant with the principle of 'government by the consent of the governed.' FLOOD TOLL 1000 IN TEXAS

Million Damage Done in San Antonio—Thousands Flee

WRECK BUSINESS PART

Martial Law Proclaimed.—All Lowlands Innundated — Houses and Bridges Swept Away.

San Antonio, Sept. 10.—At 8.50 o'clock this morning Commander of Police Phil Wright estimated the lost of life in the flood at 1,000, and has asked Col. Thomas H. Slavin, chief of staff of the Eighth corps area, to proclaim martial law in this city. His request will be granted.

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 10.—Troops were patrolling the streets here today following a sudden overflow of the San Antonio River and Alazan Creek, which has inundated parts of the city to a depth of 4 to 8 feet.

All lowland sections in San Antonio are inundated, 1,000 people are estimated to have been drowned, and the loss to property is estimated at a million dollars. Scores of families have ben forced to flee from their homes. Houses have been swept into the streets and bridges in the business section of the town are washed away.

Telephone and telegraph service is demoralized early today. Newspapers also suffered, ten feet of water flooding the office of one of the leading papers.

The flood, which came suddenly is the result of an all-day rain that poured torrents of water into the streams. The flood broke over the banks of the San Antonio river shortly after midnight and began pouring through the streets.

Early today an area many blocks in extent was under water. The deepest water is in the business district St. Mary's, Houston, and Soledad streets are flooded.

Merchants hurriedly attempted to remove stocks of merchandise to safety, but were able to accomplish little before the flood caught them.

Electric light conduits were flooded and lights in all parts of the city went out. The darkness added to the confusion.

Telephone calls for aid came from all parts of the city. A neighbor reported seeing the house occupied by Mrs. Alma Elam and her two children being carried away by the flood. Charles Grant and his wife also are reported missing.

The water was reported to have reached the second floor of the telephone building.

Austin, Texas., Sept. 10.—Families in the low lands were rushing from their homes here today to seek safety from the waters of a cloudburst which broke with great fury over this city and surrounding territory early today.

Over ten inches of water has fallen and the Colorado River is rising in a manner to cause alarm. The Missouri Kansas and Texas bridge at Flugerville has been washed out. Creedmoor is reported inundated.

The great Austin dam in the Colorado River is being anxiously watched and telephone lines are being kept clear to flash warnings at the first sign of danger.

Six negroes were reported injured at Pflugerville, where a tornado accompanied the rain.

PIEDMONT CONVOCATION

Successful Meet At Culpeper.—Next Meeting in Alexandria October 6

The Piedmont Convocation of the diocese of Virginia was most hospitable entertained this week by the good people of Culpeper, who were also celebrating in a series of hearty special services the Centennial of their parish church, St. Stephen's. On Tuesday night Dr. Woodward and Bishop Brown spoke on Christian Education making most urgent appeals for support for the five church schools of the Diocese. It was said that there are far too many children and others who do not know of the Ten Commandments and the simplest truths of religion. On Wednesday morning Rev. P. F. Hall preached on "Christ the Source of Power," and at night Dean Berryman Green preached a remarkably profound sermon on "Memory and Hope." On Thursday a large company motored to the old colonial church at Little Forks, Oak Shade, ten miles away, where Rev. Mr. Mellichampe, of Pohick preached on "Obedience to the Vision of Duty and Opportunity," and eighty-three persons received Holy Communion. The whole party was entertained royally under the trees of a beautiful neighboring residence. The Convocation in addition to its routine business, arranged for a series of Conferences in the interests of the Nation Wide Campaign to be held in four places. The Conference in Alexandria is to be on Thursday, October 6.

Anderson, Republican candidate for Governor, when he brought his campaign into this section for the first time since his nomination. Col. Anderson was introduced by H. B. Crockett. The feature of his address was the statement that up to date his challenge to the Democratic Gubernatorial candidate has received no reply. He added that the "press of Virginia has explained the Wytheville man's silence by saying that "there would be too big a crowd to hear the Republican nominee.'

Charlottesville—The valuable farm belonging to the late Charles R. Thurman, situated about six miles northeast of the city, has been sold to B. P. Hancock for the sum of $10,250. The property consists of 203 1-3 acres of land, part being valuable river low grounds and creek bottoms. There is a fine, well built stone residence of seven rooms and modern conveniences on the property, besides ample outhouses, stables and cow barns. This is regarded as one of the most productive small farms in the Rivanna river valley, of the county.

Roanoke—A handsome automobile was presented to the Rev. G. Otis Meade, pastor of Christ Episcopal church, yesterday, afternoon by the congregation as a token of their appreciation of his recent action in declining a call to the pastorate of a wealthy Baltimore church. It was the first Mr. Meade knew of the intended gift.

Charlottesville—On October 14 the Acca Temple Shrine of Virginia will meet in Charlottesville, and local Masons are already making plans to give the visitors a rousing welcome. Besides the Shriners, parade, band concert and patrol drill, the local committee will arrange an entertainment for the visitors at the McIntire Amphitheater, at the University, in the afternono and a banquet at the armory of the Monticello Guard in the evening. At one time it seemed very probable that President Harding would attend, but a previous engagement made it impossible. He expressed a great desire to be present and regretted that he could not be with the "boys" on this occasion.

Norfolk—Louis Brownloy, city manager of Petersburg, was elected President of the Virginia League of Municipalities at the afternoon session of the organization yesterday. Senator Claude A. Swanson, who came here to deliver an address before the league, declared the port of Hampton Roads must be developed, that congress should lose no time in helping to carry on the work.

Bristol—Two prisoners, Walter Long and Thurbes A. Packer, escaped late yesterday from the local jail by sawing their way through the bars and walking through two doors that had been left unlocked. 24 COMPOSE ARMS PARLEY

Six Member Nations Agree to Limit Representation to Four Each

AMERICANS NAMED

Advisory Board of at Least Twelve Also Will be Appointed.—All Favor World Society.

Washington, Sept. 9.—After arriving at an understanding with the other governments concerned that the size of the various delegations to the Conference on Limitation of Armaments would be limited to four, President Harding formally announced today the personnel of the American group.

The American delegation will be composed of:

Charles Evans Hughes, Secretary of State, former Justice of the Supreme Court, one time candidate for the Presidency and twice Governor of New York; lawyer by profession.

Elihu Root, once Secretary of War; later Secretary of State; former Senator from New York; lawyer, jurist and statesman of international reputation.

Henry Cabot Lodge, Senator from Massachusetts, Republican floor leader, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, long time student of international affairs and author of many works of an historical nature.

Oscar W. Underwood, Democrat, senior Senator from Alabama, leader of his party in the Senate, as he was in the House of Representatives; lawyer by profession.

The President also announced yesterday that an advisory delegation of at least 12 members would be selected This group will be composed of Army and Navy officers, at least one prominent woman, one or more representatives of organized labor and perhaps an international lawyer or two. This secondary delegation does not take the place of the State Department staff which will function during the conference. There will be many members of that body who will be under the immediate command of Secretary Hughes.

Nor does the decision of this Government to limit its advisory delegation to 12 impose the same limit upon any other government. It is stated emphatically that the other powers may bring as many advisers to Washington as they see fit.

The limitation of the plenipotentiaries to four for each power was fixed, however after a careful canvass of the situation and after each of the governments involved had concluded that 24 delegates to the conference could probably make more headway than could a larger number.

The American delegation is made up of three Easterners and one Southerner. Neither the Middle West nor the Far West is included in the group. Three of the members are Republicans and the fourth the Democratic leader in the Senate. All four members have accepted the tenders made to them by the President.

It is an interesting fact, moreover, that all four of the American delegates originally were for a league of nations, if not for the league founded at the Versailles Conference.

It is insisted in official circles that the appointment of four pro-league members of the mission has no significance, but it is a fact nevertheless that President Harding and Secretary Hughes are hopeful that out of this conference will be evolved an association of nations such as that advocated by Mr. Harding during his campaign.

The President let it be known to those who talked with him yesterday that the conference had in it the live germ of an association of nations in which America might participate. He is said to have added, however, that the first business of the conference was to find means of reducing armaments. The other possibilities of it might develop after armaments are dealt with.

If an association of nations is an evolution of the Disarmament Conference, Mr. Harding will be represented in such negotiations by four men who are fundamentally in sympathy with the broad idea of international leagues, provided such leagues do not aspire to the power of a super-government and do not infringe upon the sovereignty of the individual members.

President Harding feels convinced that he has selected four of the ablest and most representative men in American life to speak for him on the issues that will come before the conference. It is stated officially, however, that these men will have no power to commit the Government to any policy or program without the Government ratifies such policy. The Americans will not be plenipotentiaries in a literal sense, it is indicated, but will be expected to consult with the President at all times and upon all important propositions.

WILL EXHIBIT FRIENDSHIP

ORGANIZED 1774

The old Friendship engine, of which company George Washington was a member will be on exhibition to tourists visiting this city beginning next week. This company was organized in this city in the year 1774 and the engine which will be on exhibition is an old hand engine which is a duplicate of the one George Washington used to help pull over the streets of Alexandria. In addition to the engine there also is an old hand reel also of interest. Some of the original wooden buckets used by the volunteers of those days marked with the date of the organization of the company also adorn the sidewalls of the engine house, another interesting relic is a large American flag containing thirteen stars.

The Friendship Veterans' Fire Association now has charge of the building and engine. They recently recided to open the building to the public, many tourists visiting the city being anxious to get a glimpse of the old hand engine and some of the relics so closely identified with Washington.

For several weeks past the association has had mechanics repairing and overhauling the interior of the building. A metallic ceiling has been placedd in posiiton and other improvements made.

The old hand engine had been repainted and varnished by William H. Humphries who will be in charge of the engine house. The gilding work was done by Jack Dinwiddie.

TWO GAMES FOR DREADNAUGHTS

Games To Be Played Here Today And Tomorrow—To Be Fast And Interesting

The Dreadnaught Athletic Club will entertain a fast amateur team of Washington on Baggett's Field today at 4.00 o'clock and you can look for a good game.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the Dreadnaughts will have as their opponents the Shamrocks, of Washington. This team has been putting up some fast article of ball this season and are rated as one of the best amateur teams in the District, having held the Rex to a 5 to 4 score not more than three weeks ago. The Shamrocks are runners-up for the District championship and have a good chance to get in the Post Season Series. The Shamrocks have a large following in Washington and the Dreadnaught Manager has been asked to make room for about 500 rooters, so the Alexandria followers of the Dreadnaughts are asked to come as soon as possible so the club can make room for the Washington fans. This will be the first time this club has ever visited Alexandria and they are also claiming a victory. So if you want to see a good ball game come out and look these two teams over tomorrow. Long, the diminutive first baseman of the "Big D," has been holding down third base all the season for the Shamrocks and has been playing a fine game, but tomorrow he will be seen in a Dreadnaught uniform, holding down the first base, which he has so successfully held this season for the "D." Frye will do the slab work for the home club and Humphreys, the big pitcher of the Shamrocks will toe the slab for his club.

Long and Jaescke, two of Washington's best amateur baseball umpires, will probably be seen officiating in this game, if they can be obtained.

Next Sunday the Dreadnaughts will have as their opponents the Charlottesville nine, a fast amateur club of that city, having defeated some of the best amateur and College teams in the South, including the University of Virginia. Sneed, who formerly pitched for the Dreadnaughts will do the mound duty for Charlottesville.

SCHOOL REOPENING

Task of Issuing Permits Completed This Afternoon

The autumn term of the public schools for this city will begin Monday. All is in readiness for the re opening and the attendance in the schools probably will be an increased over the last scholastic session. Since the summer close down many of the schools have undergone necessary repairs.

The work of issuing permits was concluded this afternoon. A total of approximately 675 permits had been issued to colored children to attend the Parker-Gray School.

School officials on Thursday completed the task of issuing permits to white children to attend the schools. A total of 2,055 permits had been issued up to last time to white children

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Washington, Sept. 10.—Having surveyed with care all previous efforts to bring about disarmament or partial disarmament of the nations of the world American experts who have been working on plans for President Harding's arm conference have come to the conclusion that the only possible basis for limitation of aramaments is economic.

By this it is meant that nations will not be asked to limit their navies by maintaining so many battle ships, so many destroyers, and so many sailors to man them a nd to limit their armies by confining each nation to so many regiments of a stated number of men each but that the nations will be asked to agree to a program whereby they can spend no more than a stated sum yearly on the maintenance of their armed forces.

The conclusion has been reached by the American experts that it would be impossible to attempt to establish the relative positions of the great nations as respects sizes of their armies and navies, and it has been decided that it is a much safer and more promising plan to permit each nation to assume its proper relative place with its armaments as that position is dictated by the amount it spends.

To Tint Precious Stones

Are your diamonds, pearls, topazes emeralds or other precious stones, if you have them, off color? Do you want them restored to the original or even a better than original color or lustre?

If so, the government says it can do it. Investigations have been made by the rate and precious minerals experiment station of the U. S. Bureau of Mines at Reno Nev., which indicates that special tintings demanded by the jewelry trade and fanciers of precious stones can be given colorless stones.

The method employed is the exposure of the stone to the emanations of radium. After several weeks' exposure to the emanations, yellow Cape diamonds have been converted to a beautiful light grass green shade. Colorless Colorado topazes have been given a rich yellow tinting

Food Cost Soars in August

According to a report made public today by the U. S. Department of Labor during the month from July 15 to August 15, 1921, there was an increase in the retail cost of food in fifteen of the principal cities of the country ranging from 6 to 22 per cent. As compared with the average cost in the year 1913 the retail cost of food on August 15, 1921, showed an increase of 59 per cent in New York City and in some other centres the increase was even greater.

Opposed To Root

The report that President Harding has decided to appoint former Senator Elihu Root, of New York as a member of the American delegation to the conference on limitation of armaments will not prove satisfactory to the so called "irreconciliables" of the Senate, such men as Borah, of Idaho Johnson, of California' and others who waged the fiercest battle against the League of Nations Pact. Root, they point out, was always friendly to the League.

If the former Secretary of State should be selected as a member of the American delgation, it would give the irreconciliables an opportunity to show their displeasure at such action on the part of the Chief Executive.

May Name Sherwood

In a letter which he has written to Representative Jeffers of Alabama, President Harding says he intends to appoint a Democrat as a member of the conference on the limitation of armaments. It is generally expected, as has already been stated in these columns, that the President's choice will be Senator Underwood of Alabama, minority leader of the upper branch of Congress.

Blow To Farmers

With the provisions for a tariff on posts, poles and ties, proposed in the Fordney tariff bill, it is evident that there has been no consideration given or investigation made of the trend of depletion and the cost as well as the effect of both of these factors upon the operating expenses of American railroads telephone companies, municipal corporations and the great American farmer, who utilizes practically 60 per cent. of all the wooden posts produced. While the United States has sustained its demand for ties, posts and poles this country is fast becoming more and more dependent upon foreign supply.

RECEIVE PRIZE MONEY

The Alexandria firemen today received a check for $75 which was the prize they were awarded at the meeting of the state firemen held at Lexington, Va., recently. The prize was awarded for the best uniformed company in line of march without a band. The money was divided equally among the three fire companies.

Rev. Beverley D. Tucker, of the Theological Seminary will preach at Christ Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Weigel, Jr., a missionary from Cihna, will preach at 8 p. m.

TODAY'S THOUGHT And those who husbanded the Golden grain, and those who flung it to the winds like rain, alike to no such aureate Earth are turn'd, as, buried once, Men want dug up again.

Omar Khayyam.

THAT WASHINGTON HIGHWAY

From Virginia Highlands to the Long Bridge is about one and a quarter miles. We have had vague assurances, from time to time that a modern asphalt road would speedily replace the obsolete Belgian blocks that are now a terror to the way faring automobilist. Their antiquity may add to the interest of the sight-seer, but certainly not to the comfort of those who are obliged to motor to Washington almost daily. Good intentions may sometimes make a good paving material for other localities. But the people of Alexandria have no preference between them and cobblestones.

We beg to bring this matter to the attention of our friend, Mr. Edward Duncan, who we understand is the supervisor for the State Highway Commission in this district. We feel that some energy on his part might alleviate the present calamitous situation.

VIRGINIA'S FARM CROPS

The figures of the United States Census, just released, as to the farm crops of the country are highly interesting. The total value of Virginia's farm crops for 1919, was $292,842,212, as against $89,775,045 in 1909; that is, three times the money value. Of this value, about 109 millions were in cereals; 41 millions in hay and forage; 55 millions in vegetables, including potatoes and sweet potatoes; and all other crops about 87 millions.

The Texas farm crops for 1919 amounted to over a billion dollars; the second and third, respectively, were Iowa, with 890 millions, and Illinois, with 864 millions. North Carolina, our neighbor to the south, produced over half a billion, and Maryland, to the north, 109 millions; for the year 1919.

The entire United States produced for the same year, a total of $14,755,358,407, as against a similar total of about five billions for 1909. Of course this unusual increase of nearly 200 per cent, in the ten years, was due to the war. In Texas, considerably over one-half the values were due to one crop, cotton.

It is evident, from a comparison with other southern states, that Virginia is not producing anywhere near her capacity. But we believe, with the present modernizing of her agriculture, and the stimulus given by the agricultural schools, state and federal agencies, that she will show a very marked improvement in the next decade. Good roads are among the most important incentives, and the people are already thoroughly aroused as to their necessity.

FREDERICKSBURG FAIR

We are just in receipt of the premium list and program of the Fredericksburg Fair, to be held Sept. 27 to 30, inclusive. The annual fair held in our neighboring city is the oldest institution of its kind in the state, and we take the occasion to compliment the public-spirited men who are at the head of it.

The large premium list is certainly attractive. The amusements are plentiful and include a merry-go-round, whip, and a novel and fascinating ride called the Seaplane, as well as a variety of clean shows sponsored by an up-to-date amusement company. Races will be held daily, both trotting and running, and from the entries, will apparently be one of the drawing cards of the Fair.

We have no doubt the people of Alexandria will improve the opportunity of mingling again with their neighbors in Fredericksburg and can assure them a most pleasant and enjoyable time.

REPTILE TALES

(For The Gazette)

There are four orders of reptiles—the Testudinata, or turtle; the Loricata, the alligator and crocodile; the Lacertilia, or lizards; the Ophides, or snakes.

The boa constrictors make their monthly meal on from one to four rats according to their size. Birds and mice are the food of the black snakes. The big pythons eat from three to four pigeons every ten days.

The hoopsnake is a small snake of the South Atlantic States, fabled to take its tail in its mouth and roll like a hoop. Similar stories are told of the wampum snake, a closely related species, common in swampy ground in the South, and both are called "horn snakes." In reality both species are perfectly harmless.

Many lizards possess the power of snapping off their tail when that organ is seized by a would-be captor. Then the mutilated creature seeks the crevice of a rock, where it waits patiently for a new tail to grow.

Reo Ships Train Load of Speed Wagons

Another indication of a return to normalcy and a further proof that business conditions are getting back to their old time footing is evidenced by shipment of Reo Speed Wagons which has just been sent out by the Reo Motor Car Company at Lansing. This is the second solid train load of Reos to leave the Lansing factory within a period of 3 weeks. As in the previous case the train load is bound for the East, consigned to the Linscott Motor Car Company of Boston, Massachusetts. Reo officials believe that this is the first trainload of trucks ever shipped for commercial use. At least it is believed that it is the first train load of the same capacity and model ever sent out.

The first train load, about equally divided between Passenger Cars and Speed Wagons was shipped to Boston two weeks ago. It comprised 237 units and this shipment was scarcely on its way when another telegram was sent from Boston asking for an additional train of Speed Wagons from the Lansing factory and the order is on its way.

Particular significance is attached to the fact that this train load of shipment consists entirely of Reo Speed Wagons. Upon this fact is based the contention that business conditions look brighter than ever before. It is pointed out that if one section of the country has sufficiently recovered from the general depression of a year ago to use Reo Speed Wagons in train loads lots, the outlook is surely to be regarded as encouraging.

According to the officials of the Reo Motor Car Company the recent prices are not entirely the answer to the greatly increased demand for the Speed Wagon. It is believed that this train load order of Reo products is simply an indication that business is pretty nearly back to its old status and upon comparing figures, the Reo officials claim that the demand is only a normal one and that is due entirely to the fact that the Reo Speed wagon is serving in the many and varied line of business which are once more stabilizing.

Business did accelerate at the time new prices were announced, but an important fact is pointed out in that the two new and improved models were announced at the same prices as their predecessors and that the demand for these has been just as great as for those on which the price was lowered. Now comes a greater demand than ever for the Reo Speed Wagon which is taken as proof that things are looking better than ever before not only in the cities but in the country as well. That whole train loads of Speed Wagons are speeding across the country to serve the eastern market is certainly encouraging.

LIBERTY BOND INTEREST PAID OUT IN VA. SEPT. 15th

More than $900,000 will be paid out in Virginia by the United States Treasury on September 15, when the semi-anual interest on Liberty Bonds of the third issue falls due. Holders of bonds bought in this state or sold through Virginia banks will clip coupons amounting to $936,036. It is urged by Treasury officials that the interest collected on the bonds be reinvested in other government securities. A complete line of these securities, ranging in denomination from twenty-five cents to $1,000 is now on the market at post offices, and offers an exceptionally attractive investment opportunity..

Figures compiled by the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond show that there were 173,787 subscribers to the third loan in Virginia. This represents a per capita subscription of $20.56 as the total amount of bonds sold in the state was $44,048,750.

In the Fifth Federal Reserve District, nearly $4,000,000 in interest will be paid out September 15. A total of $186,259,050 was subscribed in the district at large, by investors numbering 858,358. The per capita investment for the district averaged $20.40.

WOMAN SICK FOUR YEARS

Was Finally Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Steens, Miss.—"I was all run down and nervous with female trouble and my sides pained me so at times that I could hardly walk. I suffered for four years with it. Then I saw your advertisement in the papers and I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I feel stronger and am able to do most of my housework now. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends and you may use this letter if you care to do so."—Mrs. W. H. BLAKE, Route 1, Steens, Miss.

How many women, overworked, tired and ailing, keep up the ceaseless treadmill of their daily duties until they are afflicted with female troubles as Mrs. Blake was, and are run down, weak and nervous. But every such woman should be convinced by the many letters like hers which we are constantly publishing, proving beyond question that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will overcome such troubles and restore women to normal health and strength. Letters about your health will be given careful attention and held in strict confidence if you write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Evening Service 8 p. m., Subject,
5 ORPHAN GIRLS WHO TURNED OUT WELL

Strangers and friends who have no church home are cordially invited to worship with us and enjoy these heartwarming and soul inspiring services.

Don't you know that when a man can willingly forego even the outward services of religion, and stay away from the House of God and let the seasons of devotion and communion pass by without a thought of regret, His Faith and love must be at low ebb. If indeed they have not altogether dried up and blown away; a living plant needs water, a living soul longs for the blessings of the sanctuary on Sunday. Come and bring a friend.

Rev. Robert Browne, pastor will preach at both services tomorrow.

MEN'S AUTUMN HATS

ARE NOW READY

In just one week from now the man wearing anything but a fall hat will be subjecting his knowledge of correct dress to very grave questioning. Custom has decreed that the Straw Hat be discarded on September 15.

We are ready now to offer men correct new styles in Autumn Headwear of the better kinds. And we are ready with a variety of styles and a largeness of selection that far outstrips any previous season.

Hats made for three distinct types of men, and each type with many different variations

Hats made especially for big men, for medium size men and for small men, and sufficient variety in each of these types to please every man.

The new shapes give preference to the narrow curl brim and medium crown, but there are others with rather straight brims. Some with bow in back, others at side; the wide pure silk grosgrain ribbon band is featured on nearly all our soft hats.

THE PARIS PAPERS

The Paris papers have arrived. There were several articles in them of considerable interest. About a fortnight before the armistice was concluded, Bonaparte sent off Beauharnais with all speed to Italy, and in announcing his departure, he said "the Viceroy of Italy has gone on a particular mission," which mission we suspected at the time to have for its object the assembling of a army either to meet the preparations of Austria in that quarter, or, to overawe her. We have now the confirmation of it, in a letter from Verona, informing us that troops arrive daily; and that they are to form part of the Army of the Viceroy of Italy, and which, judging from the dispositions made, will be considerable."

WIFE IS BEST ASSET

Then, too, there is much pathos that the county agent falls heir to. Husbands that want to be progressive, feed tankage to the hogs, use fertilizers and the like and their wives won't let them; wives who want to make money out of their poultry and can't even get their husbands to make a self-feeder out of a store box. Boys who want in to the pig club and their parents won't let them.

My observation is that the farm that gets into the paying class must be manned by a real man and womanned by a real woman. Farming isn't like other work; manufacturers can frequently succeed financially ever though their wives take no interest in the business but not so with farming It's a family affair with all hands u and coming.

And farmers generally believe in their own game. I recently attended a club meeting where the pleasures of farming were debated. Even the budding Demostheneses failed to convince the judges that the tamely presented arguments of the affirmative did not show farming to have more pleasures than pains.—"The County Agent" in Farm Life.

TRYING TO FIND THE JOKE

There was something funny about the fact that the Interstate Commerce Commission wouldn't permit Henry Ford to reduce the freight rates on his railroad. But it is hard to locate the joke. Was it on Henry—or on the Commission? Or on the people who live along the line?—Farm Life.

ANONYMOUS CIRCULAR ATTACKING UNIVERSITY HAS EXCITED COMMENT

Charlottesville, Va., Sept. 14.—An unsigned circular letter, containing no indication of its origin, dealing with the relations of the University of Virginia to the problem of rural medical practice, has been received in Charlottesville and has presumably been distributed generally throughout the state. It has excited considerable comment here both because of its anonymous character and because of its unwarranted attack on the University. The letter attempts to show that Richmond is necessary as the site for the consolidated state supported medical school to insure a sufficient supply of physicians for rural Virginia.

The letter was brought to the attention of Dean Theodore Hough, of the medical department of the University of Virginia. Dean Hough refused to comment on it further than to direct attention to a statement made in the first paragraph "that there were only 20 medical graduates of the University of Virginia practicing medicine in the rural section of the state." Dean Hough stated that a medical directory of Virginia's living medical alumni published in 1916 showed that at that time there were 100 men who had received their degrees of doctor of medicine at the University who were practicing in Virginia towns of 2,500 population or less. Dean Hough did not believe that eighty percent. of these men had died or abandoned their practice within the last five years.

Dean Hough called attention to his letter in the Richmond Times Dispatch of August 12th, in which this problem and its relation to the medical school controversy was discussed He stated that the University contemplated the publication of a pamphlet in the near future which would deal with this issue in minute detail.

Ranks High in Sunday School Attendance

The recent Sunday School attendance campaign which has just been concluded in the schools of Alexandria has revealed the fact that Sunday School attendance in thir city is not only on the steady increase, but that Alexandria is an outstanding city in the matter of Sunday School attendance.

Mr. Wallace, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has recently visited many cities in several states and in checking up on the Sunday School situation he has discovered that Alexandria the year round has an enviable reputation as a Sunday School city. The Y. M. C. A., has devoted a great deal of attention to assisting the Sunday Schools of the city in increasing their attendance with the Sunday School base ball league, attendance campagin and boys work, and it was most gratifying to note the result.

The Sunday School base ball league will soon conclude its season's schedule and the attendance campaign is closing the thirteen weeks activities with a big union picnic at the George Mason High School Labor Day. The picnic will be an all day affair and many families, classes and schools will take their lunches and eat under the trees of that splendid old homestead. An eloborate program of sports and games and songs will be provided and the day will doubtless be one long to be remembered.

Getting Your Fruit To Market

TO MOVE FLORIDA'S 1920-21 CROP ALONE REQUIRED-
600 Million Pounds of Ice.
Costing $1,700,000
in 25,713 Refrigerator Carloads

It took over half a billion pounds of ice costing over a million and a half dollars to cool 25,713 refrigerator carloads by one transportation agency in the huge task of moving the perishable fruits and vegetables of Florida alone, in the 1920-21 season, to the consuming markets of the North and East. Huge new ice manufacturing plants have recently been built at Jacksonville, Miami, Haines City and Lakeland, Florida, in order to insure a sufficient and regular supply of ice for the cars.

This is in addition to the movement of 10,000 cars of Georgia peaches and other thousands of cars of small fruits and vegetables in iced cars from the Carolinas and Virginia, where large modern icing plants have been constructed.

These figures will be startling to the thousands of fruit and vegetable growers of the South who have not been informed as to the actual workings of the great new adjunct to the transportation industry that is fast increasing the wealth of the Southern States.

A mass of conflicting information and fragmentary figures was recently submitted to the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington in connection with the application of the Florida Railroad Commissioners for a reduction in refrigeration charges, and in the near future the effort will be made by the transportation companies to throw the spot light on the actual operations and all the costs involved in protecting the products of Southern fruit and vegetable growers from their farms and plantations to the tables of consumers in New York, Chicago and other great and distant markets.

Certain of their officials state that the public lacks reliable information of what it actually means to take an orange, a head of cabbage or lettuce, a bunch of celery a grape fruit or a box of strawberries from the warm Southern climate to the table of the Northern consumer in as fresh and edible condition as though grown in his own back yard. They want that information to be gathered by an official body so that the farmer who raises and ships his crop and the man in New York, who buys the fruits and out of season vegetables, once looked upon as luxuries, may know whether they are paying fair charges for refrigeration enroute to market, and whether the transportation companies can give proper service on the charges allowed by the Federal Commission.

The volume of shipments under refrigeration out of Florida alone, last year, was twice that of two years ago and six times that of nine years ago, indicating the importance of the question for the future both to producers and consumers.

Do It Now!

So many coal consumers have delayed putting in their Winter coal this season that there will be an urgent demand when the weather gets cold which will make it impossible for the mines to produce, the railroads to haul or the dealer to handle all orders as satisfactorily as the trade will want.

It is our advice to all consumers to enter their order now and have their coal put in as promptly as possible.

YOUTH BEARS NAME OF POPULAR MOTOR CAR

Dodge Brothers, Inc., is an institution but Dodge Brothers is an individual.

Which, though it sounds somewhat involved and perhaps even enigmatic, is but a very simple and very truthful statement.

Fifteen months ago a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Brothers, Cleveland O. Mr. Brothers, it happens, is a salesman for the Barnes Motor Co., Cleveland dealer for Dodge Brothers. He had been selling the Dodge Brothers car a long time and was exceedingly proud of it. He was also exceedingly proud of his son. So he decided on a simultaneous tribute to the two. The youngster was christened "Dodge."

Master Dodge Brothers is a very bright young gentleman and gives promise of achieving a renown quite in proportion with the weight of his name.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

ANNOUNCEMENT

"We are making another reduction in the prices of Ford cars and the Ford truck, effective today. The new prices average $70.00 under former prices, and are the lowest at which Ford cars and trucks have ever been sold. List prices, F. O. B. Detroit, are now as follows:

	New Prices	Old Prices	Amount of Reduction
CHASSIS	$295	$345	$ 50
RUNABOUT	325	370	45
TOURING CAR	355	415	60
TRUCK	445	495	50
COUPE	595	695	100
SEDAN	660	760	100

"This is the third price cut during the past twelve months. On September 22, 1920, the price of the Ford touring car was reduced from $575 to $440; June 7th to $415, and now to $355, making total reduction in this type of $220, or 38 per cent. The same proportionate reductions have been made in all other types. One year ago the price of the Ford sedan was $975; today it costs at $660 with the same equipment.

"We are taking advantage of every known economy in the manufacture of our products in order that we may give them to the public at the lowest possible price, and by doing that, we feel that we are doing the one big thing that will help this country into more prosperous times. People are interested in prices, and are buying when prices are right.

"The production of Ford cars and trucks for August again broke all previous high records with the total reaching 117,696. This is the fourth consecutive month in which our output has gone over the hundred thousand mark, the total for the four months being 463,074, which has gone a long way in making possible the present reductions. June this year, with an output of 117,247 was the previous record month.

"One noteworthy feature of our sales is the increased demand for Ford trucks and cars for salesmen. This class of commercial business has been gradually increasing the past sixty days and we interpret it as a very good sign of improvement in general business.

"No reduction has been made in the price of the Fordson tractor, and none is contemplated."

Go over these new prices! See how little it costs to become the owner of a Ford car or a Ford truck. Can you really afford to do without one any longer?

Let us tell you more about it, and advise you regarding the delivery of the particular type car in which you are interested.
